Biography

BIRTH DATE

Unknown

EDUCATION

BS, Business Administration, Athens State Univ.; Licensed, Emergency Medical Technician, Univ. of Alabama in Huntsville

FAMILY

Wife: Laura; 2 children: Witney, Harrison

Background

An 8th generation Alabaman and EMT, Strong campaigned for Congress on his more than two decades of experience on a county commission

Born and raised in Monrovia, Alabama, Strong worked at his father's gas and grocery shop before going to school; his father started a bus services business to take people on trips throughout the country, which allowed Dale and his two siblings afford college

Received his license as an emergency medical technician (EMT) from the University of Alabama-Huntsville and worked for Huntsville Emergency Medical Services as an emergency dispatcher and first responder

In 1992, Strong graduated from Athens State University and began his professional career working in public relations at First Alabama Bank and later as a sales representative with Solvay Pharmaceuticals

In 2012, Strong was the first Republican elected to be the chair of the Madison County Commission; his fiscally conservative campaign focused on limited government spending and Christian values

Announced in March 2021 that he would campaign for a House seat in the 2022 election cycle; Strong's campaign focused on fiscal conservatism and immigration
